

Board member candidate listed below

Miriam Jenkinson

Miriam joined the board in 2019 as a Director. Miriam is a retired primary school principal, wife of David and mother of four.

Joe Condon

Joe joined the Board in 2019 and has expertise in company Governance. Joe is the current Chairperson of Young Parkinson's Ireland. Joe previously had a successful career in the IT industry, working as an IT Consultant. He was diagnosed with Parkinson's in 2013. He decided to take the Income Protection policy to better balance work and non-executive roles.

Denis O'Riordan

Denis joined the Board in 2019 and has since taken up the role of Treasurer.

Denis worked for the Ulster Bank in their installment credit division he retired in 2010 from the bank.

Denis set up his own consulting business which was successful until his health got too bad to manage it. Denise is living with Parkinson's disease.

Michael O'Brien

Michael joined the Board in 2019. Michael has extensive experience in retail management. Since retiring he immersed himself in many volunteering roles both locally and also with the County Council.

Maeve Caldwell

Maeve is a Professor in Neuroscience in Trinity College, she joined the Board in 2019. Maeve's other interests include Stem Cells and Regeneration; she was also a Senior Research Fellow in the University of Bristol.

More detailed bio available in the October news letter